“ Heaven now has one more magnificently beautiful Angel. She is greatly missed. There's only one Cheryl! The world would be a better place if there were millions of her. She generously shared her love, compassion, energy, and life experience. So devoted to family and gave so much of herself and her love to everyone she knew. Always doing the right thing, no matter the challenge. She is a woman to be admired and respected. Such an incredible sense of humor. Such beautiful eyes and smile, but a much more beautiful heart. Our condolences to her family. Love, George & Paula

“ What a great friend Cheryl has been to many. Her sense of humor, vibrant personality, great laugh, smile, and beauty are all things that come to my thoughts when I think of her. We had a lot of great times together over the 34 years we have known each other. I laugh when I think about the lip syncing contest we did at the company picnic, our trips to Put-in-Bay, Rolling Stones concert, and girls night out. I will miss our talks and texts. Rest In Peace sweet angel... And to Cheryl's family I am so sorry.
