“ Working the Broadway shows will not be the same without Doug handling props. For 25 years our paths would cross in the dark as I dressed a performer and he shuffled stage items around. Doug always had a smile and greeting for everyone who came through the door. I will miss you, Doug.

“ I will never forget shadowing my uncle Doug in 7th grade for my school project. He took me to the theater and then McDonald's for lunch. I remember paddle boating with him at aunt maureens company picnic, sleeping over at their house and going in the jacuzzi, riding in their Cadillac, and playing with their. Foreign exchange student Benjamin. I am sad to lose him but happy he is in peace with my aunt Maureen.
