“ Mom, It has been 3 weeks and we are all still in shock. Everything down here is harder without you by our side. I think you would have loved your service. It was "you" in a nutshell. We are all trying hard to come to terms with all of this. I think I speak for pretty much everyone you knew on this earth when I say we are all so saddened of this tragic event. You had so many more things to do on this Earth. I guess God needed you.

Love and miss you so much,

Bucky
