“ I was deeply saddened to learn today of the passing of Valry Wagner. I worked with Valry at Xerox Corporation in the 1980s and came to know her as a very fine individual. My heart-felt condolences go out to her husband Ed and her entire family at this time of great loss.

Sincerely, Jerry Vaughan

“ To Edmund, Rusty, Jason and the rest of the family of my beautiful sister, Val: she was a year older than me and always felt responsible for taking care of me when we were young. She would hold my hand (per instructions from mom and dad) on the walk to and from school. Valry's gentle and quiet smile always made me feel safe and secure as she walked with me. I was so independent I didn't always submit to her care, but she was loving and faithful to me, mom and dad, Rory, Lisa, and Scotty. I look forward to see her again in heaven. Vicki
God bless and comfort all of those who miss her.

“ I remember getting to see her and the family up in Toledo as a child. I remember getting into trouble with my cousins and hoping she wouldn't catch up with us, she always did. I remember how she never took any guff from anyone but was always ready with as big of a hug as she could give. Her observational humor was always fun to over hear from the adults table. But mostly I will remember how very strong and proud she was.

“ My sister Valry was a very sweet mellow person. She was always strong and never complained about the hard times she went through. I am glad I had these last years with her and Ed. I will love and miss her forever.
